Second Regiment D. C. Volunteers.

Within the past two weeks, nearly three hundred men have been enlisted to serve for three years in the Second regiment District Columbia volunteers, which now numbers upwards of nine hundred men rank and file. All of the companies, with the exception of three, have their full complement of men. The companies yet remaining to be filled are those commanded by Captains Duncan, which lacks 18 men, Krouse, 20 men, and Blything, 4 men,—making altogether, 42 men yet wanting to complete the organization.

All of the companies, with the exception of the three above mentioned, have been sworn into the service of the United States, and before the end of the week the commanders of the incomplete companies hope to swell their ranks to the required number of men, and to take their place with their respective commands, beside their brother officers, ready for service anywhere and at any time.

The material of this corps is most excellent, particular care having been taken to enlist none but healthy and robust men. The scrutiny exercised by the examining physician, in this respect, has been more than ordinarily rigid, and several hundred men have been refused admittance into its ranks on account of the severe test which has been prescribed.

The captains of the different companies are: Company A. Captain Garrett; company B. Captain Dubant; company C. Captain Drew; company P. Captain Biything; company I, Captain Duncan; company F. Captain Biything; company B. Captain Callan; company F. Captain Biything; company B. Captain Nicokeriday; company H. Captain Biything; company I, Captain Duncan; company R. As the Second U. S. Dragoons were passing down Seyenth street yesterday forenoon, a countryman's horse attached to a cart, which was standing on the corner of Seventh and E streets, took fright and ran away, coming in collision with a wagon belonging to Mr. Lewis, and it was turned over, disengaged from the horse, and badly wrecked. Some parties assisted Mr. L. in righting up his wagon, which operation about finished the vehicle.

On reaching Pennsylvania Avenue the same formidable body of troops frightened the horses attached to a diovernment wagon, and in their error the four horses came dashing with great furned saide by a detachment of the Provost mounted guard, when they ran up against the irro fence, where they were secured. Fortunately no one was injured by this series of frights.

The folks at the "Old Box" had quite an interesting time among themselves, evening before last, in knooking each other down, &c. The row was finally quelled by the arrest of several of the parties, who were taken to the stationhouse. Yesterday morning an examination of the affair was had before Justice Clark, which resulted in the parties being held to bail to keep the peace. The dispute originated about the possession of the building, the lease, Mr. Bland, contending that he held it for the season, and the ewner of the premises, Mr. Carusi, taking the ground that Mr. B. could be made to vacate at a week's notice. And Mr. Carusi backed his opinion by ejecting Mr. Bland and his company of "star performers" from the "Box," and closing the place. We presume that the "thing" can now be considered "played out."

Melancholy Affair.

Criminal Court.

Yos'erday, in the case of John Dougherty, indicted for the murder of Ezekiel Sevils, the evidence was closed, after which the District attorney delivered his opening argument. He was followed by Mr. Norris for the defence, when the case was given to the jury, who brought in a verdict of not guilty.

An afternoon entertainment is given at this An aiternoon entertainment is great at the very popular establishment to-day at 20 clock. These afternoon entertainments have been growing in popularity, until they are now attended by crowded houses, mainly ladies and children. To-day will be the first afternoon presentation of the comic trick pantomime, heavil.

Accident on the Long Bridge.

Bomestie Difficulty.

Honora Moriarly was brought to the guard-house yesterday swaming by an officer, on complaint of her husband, who charges his "better half" with making his home too bot to bold him, through the too free use of her tongue, and an unpleasant habit she has become addicted to of throwing anything she can get her hands upon at her leige lord's head, when things do not go on in a manner to suit her. Justice Waiter required her to fork over $5.94, which she being unable tod, a commitment was issued consigning her to thirty days in the workhouse, which, on the exmost request of her husband, was afterwards increased to sixty days. The poor hen-pecked fellow left the stationhouse happy man, as was evident from the remark he made as he was about to go home. "Thank the Lord, I'll have one night's rest, any how."

Stealing a Demijohn. James Conley (colored) was arrested, yester-day morning, by officer Frazier, for stealing a demilohn, which he was offering to sell for the small sum of five cents. Jim was committed by Justice Walter.

On Parade.

Three companies of the Second United States Dragoons were out on parade yesterday morn-ing, presenting a very—muddy appearance.

Run Over. A little boy was run over on Third street yesterday atternoon, by a grocer's wagon breaking one of his legs in two places.

Alexandria Affaire.

First Last Night.—A fire broke out last night, about ten minutes before twelve o'clock, in an old brick building on St. Asaph street, between King and Oameron streets, belonging to a Mrs. Cook, late Mrs. Hunter. The house was of two stories, each story constituting a room. The lower story was, some years ago, used as a Masonto lodge room, and the upper floor has been more recently occupied as a school-room. REMOYED.—Five companies of the gallant Eighty-eighth Pennsylvania volunteers—companies A. C. D. E and I—are under orders to march to Washington, and from thence, the supposition is, to Fort Washington. These companies—as well as the five remaining ones—have earned the good will and respect of the entire community—at least, of the Unionloving portion—and we, in common with a large majority of our citizens, regret their departure. They boar with them the good wishes of all with whom they have come in contact.

Interegeration of Cornespondence.—On Friday

ture. They bear with them the good wishes of all with whom they have come in contact.

Intercurrion of Cerusarondence.—On Friday afternoon our pickets, near Mount Vernon, saw two men leave the Virginia shore and go on board a small sloop anchored in the stream. The fact was reported to the officer of the day, and a detachment was immediately sent off to board the sloop. This was done, and a number of letters were discovered to and from parties in Dixle, and among them ten of a treasonable character. One is said to contain a very complete description of our lines of defence on the Potomac. The two men were arrested.

In speaking of the suicide of Mr. McKinney, the Chronicle says: "Mr. McKinney's connection with us was brief, and it terminated on account of conduct on his part which was incomprehensible to us and to all who came in contact with him;" and then quotes the account of the affair published in Monday's edition of this paper.
